

410

(7-10)

13 What kind of a leader would you like to be when you grow up? How will you lead your country.

As I grow up I would like to be another's union leader in church because of the following reasons; I want to be another's union leader because I want to be married in church.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to be respected as a christ worker in church and in the community.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to give my fellow mothers advices to make good marriages in life.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to have strength and confidence with in time which I should extend to my colleagues.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to be popular and at least desired by the majority.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to be approachable and available for my subject.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to observe time management and promote it in church as proper time management would lead to development.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to morally up right for my creates respect and trust in me.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to be hard working and encourage others to do ^{the} same in order to achieve the set goals and above all to fight poverty.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to have a good person lives such as trust, faithfulness, loving, caring and concern for others, respect for others.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to be honest and trust worthy to my self and to the entire community.

I want to be another's union leader because I want to be committed to my task and the purpose of my fellow christians in church.