

RATIO GRADYS 7-10 years 500 words

PAGE NO.:

DATE: / /

4.) Topic: what does family mean to you? what do you like best about your family?

RAT: Think about your immediate family and your wider family.

A family is a group of people related by consanguinity. we have several types of families namely; foster family, extended family, nuclear family.

I like best about my family because of the following important reasons;

Support and Security: The support given to my family by my relatives like uncles, nephews, cousins, among others make me to feel good about my family. The support also makes me feel welcome and comfortable. The security provided by both government agencies such as police for arresting wrong doers in the community, Army for protecting the country against any invasion - This has made me to love my family because of peace and security. The private security agency also makes me to feel comfortable because I know my area's family is secured and is always safe.

love and understanding: I like my family because there is parental love, parental care, parental understanding, God fearing, respecting other people especially neighbours. My family members are taught Christian ethics and professional conducts of associating with other people. My family organise and practice in Agriculture which is the back bones of our economy.

Then you find that there is no starvation for food because - is always there.